ORDER

LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

On May 19, 2020, the Court ordered that all parties remaining in the case collectively submit a status letter no later than June 24, 2020. (Dkt. No. 93.) Only defendant “Intellectulaw” submitted a letter. (Dkt. No. 98.) That letter advises that Mr. Lopez previously agreed to enter into a stipulation by which he would dismiss his complaint against “Intellectulaw.” (Id.)

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff shall advise the Court via letter how he intends to prosecute this action against “Intellectulaw” and all other remaining defendants no later than August 5, 2020. Failure to submit such letter would indicate failure to prosecute.

Finally, the Court is in receipt of a motion from defendant Barneys New York, Inc. respectfully requesting that the docket be corrected to note that Barneys New York, Inc. is a terminated party. (Dkt. No. 97.) The Court received no objection to that request. It is GRANTED. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to update the docket to reflect that Barneys New York, Inc. is a terminated party.

Chambers will mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
